

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/6/2024 1:10:20 PM

First name: Derek

Last name: Doucet

Organization:

Title:

Comments: 95% of Vermont logging occurs in private land and there is already sufficient GMMF land also in use for the forestry industry. Old growth forests are a precious and rare resource, particularly in the eastern US. I urge the forest service to manage our lands for the public good, clearly best served by leaving out most mature forests intact.