

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/7/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Tom

Last name: Baskerr

Organization:

Title:

Comments: To Vermont decision-makers,

Please pay attention to the science: mature forests are a primary way of sequestering carbon and a primary defense against the over-heating of our planet. Logging is severely reducing our inventory of old forests, even with the current efforts to limit cutting down old forests. It takes thirty years to grow forests to the maturity where they are effective against climate change. We need these forests here, now!

Thank you for you attention,