

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/8/2024 2:57:47 AM

First name: Ella

Last name: Wilshire

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I deeply oppose this project as it threatens crucial old-growth forest areas that provide home for a variety of keystone species as well as forms of natural carbon storage and sequestration. There are limited old-growth forests within the state of Vermont and this logging project would reduce the number even lower. A logging project this large in scale will have irreversible detrimental ecological and social consequences.