

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/8/2024 1:06:43 PM

First name: Cecily

Last name: Anderson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I strongly support alternative A, do nothing. The climate crisis needs to be addressed by every means possible to preserve a livable future for our children and all living creatures. We should preserve our forests on public land and do everything we can to protect and nurture the creation of mature forests. Under no circumstances should we be harvesting our public carbon sinks for timber.