Comments: I am an avid BC skier and average over 50 trips up the hill per year. I moved to Bham about 20 years ago specifically for the no frills epic wilderness adventure we have at Baker. With no uncertainty I can say that all of my friends are 100% against destroying one of our last refuges in the Cascades. Doing this takes away the lure of this beautiful wilderness and turns it into Disneyland; and for what? Money? Please respect the sanctity of Koma Kulshan and do not allow huts to take away her soul.
