

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/10/2024 11:11:09 PM

First name: Donna

Last name: Chesner

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The devastating harm that this mineral exploration project would have on public lands, water and endangered species in a biologically rich and unique area of Arizona far outweighs any potential mineral extraction value.

Please do your job and protect this area instead of offering it to the highest bidder. If allowed to proceed, the destruction and impact that this project will engender on our beautiful public lands will never be made right.