Comments: The Discovery chairlift definitely needs an upgrade to min three person, four is ideal. The Endeavor should stay a three person but replace the chairs with new padding. A Gondola is not necessary to replace the Gemini chairlift, that is a waste of space. Increase snowmaking in Discovery Park. Heck, they cut down the best trees off of Porcupine run to build a water retention pond. Terrible decision.

The other proposals for Mary Jane would be a benefit, but I question the impact it will have on the wilderness.

There are Moose and other wildlife throughout Winter Park that will be effected.
