Comments: My husband and I like to cross country ski without snowmobiles on the same trail. We use the Big Meadows trail and I know we share it with snowmobiles. If snowmobiles would stay on their side of the trail that would be OK. But some of them seem to deliberately mess up the entire trail.

We also cross country ski at LaManga Pass and encounter snowmobiles some of the time. There used to be a separation of cross country skiers and snowmobiles but that seems to have gone by the wayside.

Please consider cross country skiers in your forest management plan.
