

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/16/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: David

Last name: Henderson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: A prerequisite for any forest modification plans would need to include addressing invasive species PRIOR to any other vegetation removal. And it would need to include a post modification plan to control and remove invasive species so native trees are dominant. While not profitable to many of the existing revenue streams. It could employ people and add to the economy as this would be labor intensive.