

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/18/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Eloise

Last name: Lynch

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The proposed logging project on Jellico Mountain threatens the health and survival of flora and fauna whose value cannot be quantified. Trees and the ecosystems they support cannot be quickly or easily replaced. Their bounty belongs to future generations of Kentuckians as much as to us. We must avoid short sighted decisions to safeguard long term priorities. You must pursue Alternative 1.