

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/20/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Pascual

Last name: White

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I oppose any clear cutting of the national forest lands. These lands are the property of the general public and should be managed in a way that is in their best interests. I am from a wood industry background with family members who made their livelihood that way for generations. Select cutting is a far superior method of forest management that my family has long employed successfully on our own properties.