

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/22/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Gregory

Last name: Goebel

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I fully support the Jellico Vegetation Management Project #63037

The Daniel Boone national forest is suffering because of a lack of early successional Forest habitat. This project will benefit the species that rely on young forest such as the Ruffed Grouse which has been in decline on the Daniel Boone national forest. The project is a step in the right direction to create more young forest habitat at the DBNF.