Comments: I have been hunting/camping this land for over 30 years. I love being able to get on public land to do the things I enjoy. I do not have a lot of private land to hunt and those mountains/woods are like home to me for outdoor activities. I hate the idea that all of that may disappear. Clear cutting all of that land is a mistake in my opinion. I agree that a select cut is good for the land, however a clear cut will continue to ruin the land. Please consider another option before ruining this land!!
