

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/24/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Stephanie

Last name: Hamborsky

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Deforestation is a direct contributor to anthropogenic climate change. We need to prioritize the preservation of our national forests and forested lands, as these resources are already diminished all over the world and in our region. We cannot continue to extract resources from our forests in this way and maintain the quality of life we want for ourselves, our children, our grandchildren and the future humans of this community.