Comments: I write this out of concern for my relatives and other residents of the Jellico Mountains. I am a West Virginia resident, so I am familiar with the threat landslides and mudslides pose to life, property, and infrastructure. For people in mountainous areas, they aren't completely unavoidable, but we have a responsibility to minimize the risks as much as possible. The proposed clearcutting will subject the residents in this area to unnecessary risks. Please reconsider the proposed action and choose Alternative 2, or at least Alternative 1.
