Comments: I have enjoyed the beauty of Circle Z Ranch and its surrounding areas five times over the past several years. I have always been so impressed with the respect the ranch owners and management have shown for the land and their willingness to share their knowledge of the area with their guests. We have all learned to have the same appreciation.

I would encourage everyone to take whatever means necessary to leave this amazing treasure in its natural state. While it is understood that other developments need their opportunities, they should not be done at the risk of compromising something which cannot be re-created. Other reasonable options for this project exist, and they are the right answer for allowing progress while preserving history and nature.

We have all had the pleasure of enjoying this magnificent area to the fullest - future generations deserve the same.
