

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 7/12/2024 5:49:57 PM

First name: Steven

Last name: Jones

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Words of wisdom for making stewardship decisions...

Remember that destructive processes, in the form of forest fires for example, are what have created the very situation you may be try to "conserve." So please allow for destruction and intigrate letting go as being a natural and necessary part of healthy possession. The alternative is that by trying to prevent all death you kill the essence of the living.