

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/7/2024 12:43:08 PM

First name: Tricia

Last name: Erikson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This is a remarkable forested area whose location relative to wilderness, the contiguousness of habitat and its current lack of roads means that the impact of creating logging roads outweighs the small benefits. There is little evidence that this wet forest area needs fuels reduction. It has proved itself resilient already. You should be focusing on and prioritizing much drier and fuel heavy forest. The quality of this forest would be severely degraded by treatment.