Comments: There doesn't seem to be enough opportunity to purchase tax forfeit land from the counties. If parcels of the tax forfeit portion of this annexation are auctioned the counties get taxes back so why not hold auctions for these properties. It's getting increasingly difficult to find a way to own land up north. One day I would like to build a cabin in an area around here and if everything is converted to state forest that gets more difficult.

Thank you for your consideration.
