

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/11/2024 8:23:59 PM

First name: Gen

Last name: Grimm

Organization:

Title:

Comments: To whom it may concern.

I respectfully disagree to have any target shooting in any national forest. This could develop into an environmental disaster in a forest, that's already dry and in danger of wildfires. Next, we will have more lead and noise pollution. A lot of these target practice proposals are near populated areas. A bullet can travel up to a mile, how could this be safe? There are also hiking trails nearby, which could endanger people.