

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/16/2024 8:43:29 PM

First name: Diane

Last name: Foulds

Organization:

Title:

Comments: A federal plan to protect 100% of our old growth forests is long overdue. This means ending logging, road construction, and any other damaging human interference. The best way to protect these carbon-absorbing lands is to leave trees in their natural state, the same that they evolved in. The healthier the forest -- the better off Americans will be.