

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/19/2024 10:18:02 PM

First name: Cathy

Last name: Ritter

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Old growth forests are a valuable resource and we, as a state, should protect whatever we can. We have very little old growth left and it should be guarded as we guard other valuables. Vermont has a tremendous number of trees, but only a small amount of them are old growth.