

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/23/2024 10:55:08 PM

First name: Kelli

Last name: Wagner

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Ullrhof is the last place to grab a drink/meal on snowmass mountain that retains its original charm. Amidst all other lodge/dining options that have been updated to modern behemoths, myself and many others I know will traverse the mountain at lunchtime to drink and dine in a setting that feels akin to the "old days" at Snowmass, specifically, Ullrhof. If Elk Camp were to be expanded as planned, dining capacity could be increased not at the expense of history and charm. Please consider leaving Ullrhoff "as is" or expanding the deck for additional seating, without completing altering the classic atmosphere enjoyed by so many.