

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/27/2024 5:41:20 PM

First name: Ken

Last name: Smith

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Our forests are a crop they live and die in a life cycle. Most of our " OLD GROWTH" forests are past or near the end of there productive life cycle. To improve forest health we need to manage the forests. Grazing logging and fire mitigation should be the primary tools used.

Clear out the chatter from special interest groups and use common sense for a change. Thank you Ken Smith