

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/29/2024 3:17:07 PM

First name: Colin

Last name: Conrad

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I believe this proposal is absurd! Currently the state of Minnesota spends over half of its annual budget on education. That being the case, how can anyone suggest that these lands need to be bought up to make money off of for school funding? School funding is up and test scores are down. Throwing any more money towards education is not the answer!