

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/31/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: richard

Last name: GRACE

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Active management of our forest lands is essential for long term sustainability and health. Wildfires, disease and insect infestations are the biggest threat to our native forests. Old growth (mature trees) are as susceptible to these threats as young growth stands of trees.

I do not support removing management options of old growth trees by designating these timber types as reserved, not managed and treated as untouchable.