Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/2/2024 7:33:10 PM
First name: Nicole
Last name: Bennett
Organization:
Title:
Comments: USDS Forest management is not doing it's protect and preserve job. Your past thinning projects are creating more fire management problems. You must stop serving logging companies before the public interest. Fires are natural. Thinning undergrowth and removing debre. The fallen trees feed the soil, protect wildlife and help with biodiversity.
I oppose your plans.