

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/3/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Gordon

Last name: Laatz

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I'm writing to advocate for alternative number three, that we log as little as possible in National Forest and do not log old growth trees. Research has shown that old growth trees are genetic data banks with crucial information they're able to share with the surrounding forest on how to handle and adapt to a changing climate, they are more efficient at storing carbon, and they were more likely to be habitat for wildlife species.