

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/4/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Barbara

Last name: Warner

Organization:

Title:

Comments: There must be stronger protections for mature and old-growth trees and forests to stop any logging of them. They are important for the future because they help stop climate change by absorbing carbon dioxide , provide shade to help cool the earth, help stop erosion, store water, provide habitat and food for birds and animals and help stop forest fires.