

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/5/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Lorie

Last name: Johns

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I urge you to immediately stop logging of any trees over 150 years of age. These trees form the base of healthy forest ecosystems and are vital to the survival of our species. Once gone, old growth trees and the species that depend on them will require centuries to recover, if they can recover at all. We cannot take that chance.