

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/8/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Dewey

Last name: Wells

Organization:

Title:

Comments: There is a place for old growth, wilderness acreage within national forests. But remember the Congressional mandate when the system was created, which is that the forests are to serve multiple purposes, including supplying lumber, recreation and wildlife. Various wildlife species must have early successional forest growth for survival, which is woefully deficient.