Comments: Please recall the dictates of The Wilderness Act and modify ANY actions in Wilderness to adhere to these easily-understood rules. Thus:

In the Mount Timpanogos Wilderness there is NO need to rebuild any structures unless they are necessary for Wilderness administration, which this one is not. Nor is it necessary for visitors to the area.

This structure must either be allowed to degrade over time, or be removed WITHOUT mechanized tools or vehicles.

Thank you for your continued stewardship and vigilance in protecting our Wilderness; they are only becoming more precious with time.
