

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/10/2024 1:57:19 AM

First name: Eric

Last name: Riddle

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I have seen the deleterious effects of disturbed forests being overcome by invasive species such as callery pear, honeysuckle, and mulberry in my region in Indiana. We need stable forests with minimal disturbance - only for the purposes of disease resistance and fire prevention. Commercial logging must stop in our forests.