

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/10/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Tessa

Last name: Magliano

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I object to the continued logging of old growth trees in our national parks. Wood for manufacturing can be sourced from plantations but old growth trees can never be recreated and must be protected for future generations. Old growth trees have greater value to the public left alive than they do cut down.