

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/10/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Sean

Last name: Brudney

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Forest Service should NOT log old growth forests. The forests need to be protected as delicate ecosystems. Logging contributes to the disastrous conditions that allow for both naturally occurring and human caused fires to run out of control and significantly impact the lives of millions of people across the nation without any benefit that private interests receive from the raw materials gained from logging.