Comments: The project your proposing for the wildernes area is unnecessary and damaging. The area should remain pristine. We don't need to make all wilderness areas accessible to people. in fact, in the long run we should be more focused on keeping people out. Yellowstone is a good example. People getting too close to wildlife, falling into steam vents falling off of high.elevstions, going onto.trailsunprepared, generally overwhelming protected areas. Your job is to.protect. Do it
