

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/10/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Mourning

Last name: Harris

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I deeply morally oppose further cutting of old growth forest. Wildfires run rampant across america like they never have before, and planting new trees is not a viable solution to this or the other effects climate change is habing on our soil. It takes hundreds and thousands of years to remake what we have already destroyed, do not destroy more of the land that stands between the people of the Untied States and turning our country into an uninhabitable world.