

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/11/2024 8:12:55 PM

First name: Ted

Last name: Keyes

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I oppose the Stibnite mine. Mining companies historically leave no room in their budgets for cleaning up their toxic tailings and waste. How will the mining company accomplish such a huge task at scale and in a wilderness area? Where will the toxins go? They will leach out and poison the Salmon River system, ruining habitat, recreation and drinking water for millions downstream. This mine is just a bad bad idea. Another superfund site for Idaho.