

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/11/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Paula

Last name: Stober

Organization:

Title:

Comments: We must preserve our old growth forests. Some of our oldest trees have fallen to the many insects and blights coming across the nation.

The forests play important parts of the ecology of the earth, providing food, shelter and other important uses for wildlife. They sequester carbon and are the lungs needed to combat climate change.

Please do all you can to protect these wonderful and beautiful resources.