

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/11/2024 9:36:32 PM

First name: Tulley

Last name: Mackey

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Stibnite mine will have deleterious effects on EAS-listed salmonids that already face extinction from the Columbia River basin hydropower system and climate change. Re-opening this mine runs the risk of trading short-term national security for the extirpation of keystone species. When it comes to natural resource extraction, we should learn from past mistakes, not repeat them. I oppose this decision and implore decision makers to reconsider.

Thank you