

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/11/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Sean

Last name: Bennett

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Removing old growth trees from national forests for the short term financial gain of a private company is unconscionable. Those old growth trees are foundational to a complex assemblage of flora and fauna and can take hundreds of years to return, if they can at all. Trees and forests for everyone, not for board and plank llc please.