Comments: I am writing to support the purchase of 80,000 acres of state school trust lands contained in the Boundary Waters Canoe Wilderness Area and the 3,200 acres of St. Louis Co. land with federal monies. By increasing the size and consolidating the BWCWA, administration of the area will be facilitated, the monies gained for Minnesota's school trust will be guaranteed and stabilized in perpetuity, and climate chaos will be addressed. A win-win-win situation.

As stated in the Land & Conservation Fund enacted by Congress, this is exactly the type of situation it was created to address.
