

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/12/2024 6:05:26 PM

First name: Brianna

Last name: Taylor

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am against any possible, future proposals arranged to harvest Old Growth forests for corporate or manufacturing purposes. These lands should be protected, preserved and sustained, healthily. America's Old Growth forests are dwindling fast and should be regarded not as a resource to cull from, but a resource to help sustain a better environment. Old Growth is important to the environment and are historically significant, and should be kept and preserved as well as possible.