

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/14/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Alex

Last name: Johnson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please consider the science that shows forest management must take place to ensure ecosystem diversity is in place to maximize habitat and use for game and non-game species. Wise use of prescribed fire, timber harvests, invasive species control are needed to replace the natural and indigenous use of fires that historically occurred on a large scale. Simply leaving the forests alone will continue to degrade the early and mid successional habitat that most species require.