

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/16/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Charlie

Last name: Hage

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am completely against this. I enjoy hunting on national forest lands, areas I target are all areas with diverse habitat because they have the most to offer to wildlife. Diversity amongst habitat is scientifically proven to help the populations of wildlife. Old growth timber has very little to offer wildlife. We need to aid our forests in making the proper things wildlife need to thrive! If this passes it will be a detriment to the ecosystem of our national fores.