

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/16/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Judy

Last name: Klein

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am writing in response to July 21 DEIS:

Indiana's mature and old growth forests must be protected; they are achieving maximal species diversity (both flora and fauna) by being undisturbed. Cutting and burning have no place in "managing" these precious forests. Their unique characteristics do not allow for forest management practices that are used western states.

Again, Indiana's mature and old growth forests MUST be left UNDISTURBED!