

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/17/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: james

Last name: heaney

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Old growth forest areas are increasingly developed and their existence is threatened by development and incursions by commercial logging. Please ! Stop ! The future generations need to experience the land/environment as it has historically adapted into its current form. There is relatively little benefit to harvesting/developing/logging in untouched areas! The remainder of OLD GROWTH Forests everywhere must be protected from extinction, as has been the condition of what was once the dominate condition in much of the State.