Comments: Greetings! I am a young person who cares a lot about protecting our beautiful environment. I think you for all that you do. I also respectfully encourage you to please support safeguarding our old growth forests. It's so important that these incredible ecosystems protected for future generations. They're also very important wildlife habitat and provide lots of scenic and join it. I know that we can all work together, to ensure these precious places keep on Thriving. So thank you for your efforts in this area, and I hope that you have a great day!
