

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/18/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: Dale

Last name: Ralph

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I think there needs to be some aggressive clearcutting of wet, low, lying woods all across the state for habitat. And have people who are interested have programs for planting food, source, trees, and vegetation to support ruffed grouse, and Woodcock. And left the restriction on shooting red, tailed hawks, and no protection for the fishers that the game commission got here brought here there are enough predators