

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/18/2024 4:00:00 AM

First name: John

Last name: Richards

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Since the early 1990's there has been substantial amount of timbering in north Georgia. As a result some of the bird and animal life have suffered. Does the U.S. Forest Service plan on contracting substantial timbering for timber sales or permitting timbering by private companies in our National Forests? Additionally there is a vast amount of dead trees on the ground in our Georgia forests which is poor management of our natural resources.

Thank you

John